

Is it just me or is RoadRage just
Not an issue for anybody but me?

Pulling up beside a boombox
Car that proceeds to override
My thoughts, rattles me to the Bone and puts me into bad karma
Isn't that sitting you up to want
To – pull out a baseball bat and Smash a little? Or, how about
A blowgun to instantly put the Tires into the flat mode? A
Slingshot to get a firecracker into
The Usually Open windows?

RoadRage is not normal – however
Drivers are becoming less than Normal, As you round a curve
Behind someone with approaching
Traffic coming toward you – what
Possesses the driver in front of you
To Slow Down? Then that driver
Proceeds to drive well below 35mph
And constantly reviews your reactions
In the rearview mirror?

Drivers who drive really slow in the Fast lane – OK, so there is really no
Fast lane just a Left and Right Lane
Traffic Cops tell you, but, why then
Are there road signs saying to only
Pass in the LEFT/FAST lane?

PLEASE GOD explain to people how
To position yourself under a green light
When attempting to turn left, DO NOT Wait for the light to turn red and look
Perplexed when you could have gone
Ahead and turned while the light was
In caution.

Enough, but there is more ... and more
Each day! How about we all buy those Nifty little electronic boom box killers?

Gang up on these road bums with cool
Retaliation tricks!!!
